The Ninja That Was Afraid of the Dark!

Sensei Who is a very old ninja who works at a dojo.

He has been training ninjas for a very long time.

Mada is a boy who is being trained to be a ninja.

It took a whole month to finish training.

It was very hard.

One night, Mada and his new partner Adam were sneaking around looking for bad guys.

They were dressed in black so no one could see them because it was late at night.

Mada keeps switching on the flashlight and Adam keeps on asking Mada why he keeps doing that.

Mada says "It's because I'm afraid of the dark!"

Adam says "WHAT? All ninjas do is sneak out at night to look for bad guys then beat them up."

"Oh" said Mada.

"Hey I have an idea. How about we go back to Sensei Who and he'll think of something," said Adam.

They go back to Sensei Who and Adam tells Sensei Who that Mada is afraid of the dark.

Sensei Who tells them he will think about it.

It took a very long time.

It took two days to think about it because he had never had a ninja that was afraid of the dark.

Sensei Who tells Mada to be a ninja who dressed in white and goes out in the day.

So the next day he dressed in white and snuck out in the day.

He was very happy!
